

FRIDAY - FEBRUARY 22 - 2013

THE BLACK PUBLIC HEALTH STUDENT NETWORK

PRESENTS
THE 4TH ANNUAL

MINORITY HEALTH CONFERENCE

“Constructing the Foundation for Health Equity: Cultivating Strong Communities for a Healthier Tomorrow”

Join us for a day of seminars and workshops showcasing a multidisciplinary approach to minority health and highlighting key issues in this area. Workshops and panel discussions will cover a wide array of topics including minority health, HIV, cultural competency, and many more!

WHEN: Friday, February 22, 2013

TIME: 9:30 AM to 4:00 PM

WHERE: Barbara Jordan Conference Center
1330 G Street, NW, Washington, DC, 20005
(one block west of Metro Center)

Featuring Dr. J. Nadine Gracia, MD, MSCE, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Minority Health as well as Keynote address by Dr. Brian Smedley, PhD webcasted from UNC-Chapel Hill

REGISTER HERE:

<http://gwumhc2013.eventbrite.com/>

School of Public Health
& Health Services

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

